Robert Channon Wines

NOTE NEW PRICE : $1.95million.

Arguably Australia's foremost producer of Verdelho.

Winery, Cellar Door and Cafe with a million dollar view.

An established profitable business. Approx 19 acres of vineyards.

"Since 2001 winners of 36 Trophies & 26 Gold Medals for chardonnay, verdelho, sparkling, pinot gris, cabernet sauvignon and merlot."

"Robert Channon has long been a master of the dark arts of Verdelho" James Halliday 2016.

This highly recognised and well respected Winery, located on the Granite Belt is now available for sale to its second owners, and what an excellent opportunity this is for an incredible exciting lifestyle!

With a total area of 40 hectares, the winery was established in 1998 by Robert and Peggy Channon and rests on an altitude of nearly 950 metres, making it one of Australia's highest wineries. This elevation plus the granite soils creates the unique cool climate wine area that is well recognised as the Granite Belt.

Robert Channon Wines was the first Queensland winery to receive 5 stars from James Halliday who has consistently praised the winery's Verdelho.
